The Sadness Connected to the Successes of Solomon

And whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them. I kept my heart from no pleasure, my heart found pleasure in all my works...then I considered all I had done...and behold ALL OF IT WAS VANITY and a striving after wind Ecclesiastes 2:10-11

Take This To Heart

If our central goal/highest desire in life is to "have it all" in some/many or even any categories of "worldly success" (including in religious/church circles) we are doomed to disaster:

Option 1: We will fail to achieve our goal(s)...convince ourselves to be miserable and probably "get mad" at God because we didn't achieve OUR dreams/realize OUR earthly expectations.

Option 2: We will succeed and achieve our #1 goal(s)...and like Solomon sadly realize that by worshipping our goals (self) instead of God "having it all" isn't enough to satisfy/fulfill.

God is Our Sovereign...Believers are His Servants

God is Not Our Success Consultant/Guarantor of Our Earthly Comfort/Success

Having it all now/on Earth isn't enough because having it all isn't all there is. We have been made for Someone and for Somewhere that is ultimately out of this world...so assuming that anyone/anything on Earth can ultimately satisfy/fulfill is incorrect and a spiritual dead end.
