

Genesis 46:31-47:26

God's Providence and the Spiritual Life of Believers

Jacob and Family Move from Canaan/Settle in Goshen 46:31-47:12

Joseph Prepares His Brothers for Their Appearance before the Pharaoh 46:31-34

The Brothers Meet with the Pharaoh and Seal the Deal to Live in Egypt 47:1-6

Jacob Interacts with the Pharaoh 47:7-10

Bottom Line: The Family Settles in Goshen as a Result of the Providence of God

Working in Parallel with Prime Minister Joseph's Grace/Generosity 47:11-12

Resting in the Providence of God does not dispense with the need for personal initiative but it does allow us to accept our blessings apart from personal pride and our problems apart from self-pity.

Joseph Continues to Be Faithful in His "Secular" Vocation Even

After His Family Moves to Egypt to Live with Him 47:13-26

Money for Food 47:13-14

Possessions for Food 47:15-17

Freedom for Food 47:18-26

Resting in the Providence of God does not dispense with the need for "routine" faithfulness in all areas of life, but it does help motivate us to be consistent in doing the right thing(s) for the right reasons knowing this honors our Savior.

Bottom Line: When You Can't See God's Hand Trust His Heart and...Keep Moving

We walk by faith not by sight..it is kind of like "flying" through life when we can't see the horizon based on a biblical instrument panel and/or putting away our personal letter jacket for the whole armor of God (IOWs: resting in who/what Christ is, has done and will do; choosing to "see" everything from DVP > HVP and embracing a lifestyle that elevates God's Word and God's Will > our personal preferences/convenience.
